Subject: EOCCG Update 15: Planned Truck Demonstration

Good evening,

The Emergency Operations Centre (EOC) has been working with Ottawa Police and other partners to prepare for the weekend. Sources indicate that various convoys, people, and perhaps even chartered buses as we saw last weekend, are intending to come to Ottawa. Superbowl Sunday is contributing to the sense of an overall party weekend for protesters (there is already a large gathering tonight at Metcalfe and Wellington). Similar to last weekend, the EOC will be supporting Ottawa Police Service and the NCRCC and will also be implementing pro-active measures – for example, ensuring that 3-1-1 is appropriately staffed and putting in place the same security posture as last weekend such that the O-Train can continue to operate safely.

There were a couple of incidents last night, including some property damage at 202 Sparks Street and the theft of a defibrillator at the O-Train Rideau Station. Today, there were indications of a few individuals potentially monitoring police activity at Ben Franklin Place, from the parking lot.

Evidence of external influence persists. The Ottawa Hospital has received some disturbing calls, mostly from the United States which have been reported to Police. PIMR has paused public comments on the City of Ottawa's corporate Facebook and Instagram accounts for the duration of the City's State of Emergency due to an apparent coordinated effort to spam the City's feed with hateful or toxic comments (including racist comments), or misinformation and rumours.

Ontario declared a State of Emergency today, in response to convoy protests. The state of emergency order now has to be ratified by cabinet within 72 hours and will be in effect for 14 days. As noted in a Memo to Council today, legal counsel, on behalf of the City of Ottawa, sought an appearance before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice to obtain an injunction related to violations of City by-laws, specific to the on-going protests. The injunction is meant to supplement the new provincial measures; it is anticipated that the hearing will take place in the coming days.

Additional police are being deployed in Windsor, to the Ambassador Bridge area. This afternoon, an injunction to remove protesters blocking traffic to the Ambassador Bridge was granted following an Ontario Superior Court of Justice hearing. The injunction went into effect at 7 p.m. this evening.

Finally, the EOC is tracking the potential for rolling convoys to be driving along the Queensway, Riverside Drive and other roadways tomorrow and/or Sunday, resulting in broader than normal traffic impacts and delays.
